Community enablement examples

- A webinar to help support councils to develop the skills and practice of community enablement. You will hear international and local examples of how councils can enable and facilitate strong community groupings, tap easily into community networks and knowledge, support co-design and co-production and help build inclusive communities: watch here
- Megan Courtney from Inspiring Communities examines localism in Aotearoa through a community-led lens in A Focus on the How not the Who – Victoria University of Wellington
- Inspiring Communities (<https://inspiringcommunities.org.nz>) provide a raft of tools and resources to help support collaborative, community-led action, helping everyone (central and local government, iwi, non-government organisations, and communities) work together to solve complex issues and shift Aotearoa towards a sustainable future
- The Southern Institute shares resources on how Te Tokotoru can help activate a wider ecology of wellbeing, and the key shifts it represents as a holistic approach to prevention: https://tepunaonui.govt.nz/assets/Resources/TeTokotoru\_October\_InnovationBrief\_2021.pdf

Anchor institutions

- This webinar is a good introduction to how a council can position itself as an anchor institution. Matthew Baqueriza-Jackson is a well-respected international expert on community wealth building and social procurement: watch here
